Sookmyung Women's University, Seoul, South Korea

Submission Form - Paper Session

The International Conference on Cultural Policy Research (ICCPR) in Seoul, July 5-9, 2016, encourage proposals in the widest range of disciplines, provided they make an original academic contribution to the conference theme. Proposals based on research on cultural policy that is primarily 'instrumental' (such as market research) or on research designed for the purposes of advocating a preconceived institutional position will not be accepted.

People who would like to present in paper session should submit the proposals no later than by January 4th, 2016. Proposals received after January 5th, 2016 will not be considered. Participants will be notified of the decision regarding their proposals by February 25th, 2016. All applicants agree to hand in their full papers no later than June 1st, 2016, if accepted.

All the proposals must include the following:

- 1) Author(s)
- 2) Institutional affiliation(s) of author(s)
- 3) Contact details (including email and full postal address) of corresponding author
- 4) Reference to which listed or proposed field of cultural policy research
- 5) Research questions that the paper will address
- 6) Methodological approach
- 7) Description of what is original about the research
- 8) Illustrative bibliography of author(s), which will demonstrate knowledge of relevant literature.

* The paper may also include figures and tables.

* All the submissions should be made and presented in ENGLISH.

* The proposal must not exceed 500 words (excluding bibliography).

All Proposals must be submitted on “Submission of proposals” menu of the official ICCPR 2016 website (<http://iccpr2016.sm.ac.kr>). Please note that papers submitted by e-mail will not be considered. The website for submission will be open on late December, 2015.
